The Commissioners of Appeals met Tuesday and gave a hearing to a number of taxpayers who complained about their assessments.

John Coyle of Glenwood avenue was arrested by Policeman McKane Monday morning charged with failing to support his wife and family.

Mr. and Mrs. F. E. Mohrmann, Jr., who returned from the South on Monday, started yesterday for Manuet, N. Y., to be absent several days.

Elaborate preparations are in progress for the production of the oratorio of "The Messiah" in the Watsessing M. E. Church early in January next.

Bloomfield Council, Royal Arcanum, has decided to entertain the women friends of members December 18 with a reception and entertainment.

The Commissioners of Appeal made an inspection of Brookdale properties Wednesday afternoon over which there was a dispute about assessments.

The Rev. Elliott W. Brown will deliver the fourth in his series of historical sermons in the Glen Ridge Congregational Church Sunday evening, the subject being "John Knox, the Scottish Hero."

The large contract for electrical equipment awarded to the General Electric Company by the New York Central Railroad, it is claimed, will have a tendency to increase business at the company's plant here.

Owing to a defect in the title to the land, the building of a new factory at the corner of Lake street and Maolis avenue will be abandoned and a site for the plant sought elsewhere in the town.

Rules regulating and licensing carriages and vehicles used in transportation in the town of Montclair and relating to owners and drivers were adopted Monday night by the Town Council. This ordinance governs the hackmen of the town and the rates they charge.

Burglars have been operating in the Second Ward during the past week. At the home of William Florus the thieves secured a gold watch. A visit was also made at the home of James Cockefair in Madison street, but the intruders were frightened away by the barking of dogs.

Preparations are practically completed for the annual exhibition of the Fanciers' Poultry Association of New Jersey, which is to be held in the New Auditorium in Orange street, Newark, on Tuesday, Wednesday, Thursday, Friday and Saturday, December 1 to 5, inclusive. The entries, which closed last week with Secretary R. G. Bailey, numbered between 2,000 and 2,500, an excess of more than 500 over last year's list.

A Will and Three Weddings.

In Warsaw a banker died and left his entire fortune to whichever of his three nieces—daughters of three different brothers and sisters—married first. The parties interested in this provision were present when the will was read, and all of them took immediate steps to secure the prize. By procuring special licenses and taking other unusual measures it was found that the earliest possible time for a wedding to take place was at 8 o'clock on the morning of the tenth day after the will had been read. Before noon on that day all three nieces appeared at the notary's office with certificates showing that they had all become wives between 8 and 8:15 o'clock that morning, though not one of them had even been engaged when the will was read. All three claimed the fortune, and the courts solved the difficulty by dividing it into equal parts.

Skates ground while you wait. Chas. W. Smith, 25 Broad street.

Pleasing Entertainment.

A very pleasing entertainment was given in the Watsessing M. E. Chapel on Thanksgiving night. A large and very appreciative audience was present and well repaid for their patronage. The programme was an excellent one, being contributed to by the male quartette of the church, composed of Harry Albinson, Roland Travis, Fred Blight and Ernest E. Law. The pieces they selected were well adapted, very well rendered and loudly applauded, as they deserved to be. Mr. Elvin Blight (basso) excelled himself in these selections: "A Son of the Desert am I," "Drink to Me only with Thine Eyes" and "My Love Nell." Mr. Blight is entitled to great credit for his masterly rendering of these solos, and the audience showed its delight by applause. Watsessing Church may well be proud of such talent as was displayed at this entertainment by the male quartette and Mr. Blight. Miss Hazel Davis, the wonderful little eloquutionist, gave two selections in a most admirable manner. The doll drill by a company of little Puritan mothers and the wand drill by a party of young ladies, both of which were so nicely rendered at the Berkeley Neighborhood entertainment, were reproduced with splendid effect under the supervision of Miss Martin, principal of the Berkeley School. The entertainment was a financial success.

Westminster Church.

The pastor, Rev. George A. Paull, will preach to-morrow morning, his subject being "What Confessing Christ Adds to Faith." The evening service will be evangelistic in character, the subject of the sermon being "The Conversion of Peter."

The men of this town are cordially invited to avail themselves of the advantages of Recreation Hall with its complete gymnastic outfit, a number of additions to the apparatus having been made during the present month. The hall is open to men Monday and Thursday evenings, and the work is under the charge of the Men's Club. Special social evenings are a feature of this branch of the church life, and membership in the club is both pleasant and beneficial.

Great Foot-Ball Struggle.

This town was represented in both the teams in the great foot-ball contest on the Orange Oval on Thursday morning between the Forest Hill Field Club, and the Orange Athletic Club. It was the greatest game ever witnessed on the Oval. The sensation play of the game was a sixty-yard run by Jack Maxfield. It was a bitter battle, and at the end of forty minutes of actual play each side had six points to its credit. Orange scored its touchdown, shortly after the game started, on straight line plunges, and Forest Hill made its touchdown, a couple of minutes later, on Maxfield's sixty-yard run. For the most part it was clean, hard foot-ball, and only once was there a penalty inflicted—on Orange, for offside play.

The St. Andrew's Brother of St. Paul's Episcopal Church gave a reception Wednesday night to the men of the church. There was a good attendance and a pleasant evening was spent. The Rev. Mr. Moren of Trinity parish, New York city, gave an interesting talk. Refreshments were served.

Dr. J. S. Wolfe of Ella street will have a number of exhibits in the poultry show in Newark next week.

Skates ground while you wait. Chas. W. Smith, 25 Broad street.

Watsessing Y. M. C. A. Notes.

Owing to sickness Mr. Chas. T. Kilborne, the New York broker, who was to speak on "Wall Street" last Saturday was unable to be present, but we are glad to announce that he will be with us this evening. Dr. D. W. Lusk of Newark was present and spoke in place of Mr. Kilborne last week. The banjo and dulcimer duets were applauded very heartily by the large company present.
